

Asian Debate Next Senate Work Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fresh from a long Fourth of July weekend, the Senate takes up two appropriations bills this week before wading deep into another debate over United States policy in Southeast Asia.

The House, far ahead of the Senate in acting on appropriations for the fiscal year that began July 1, has a relatively light schedule this week. On the agenda are Senate-passed bills to provide an antitrust exemption for joint newspaper-publishing arrangements, and regulating issuance of unsolicited credit cards.

The Senate must dig into a backlog of work left undone during a seven-week debate over the Cooper-Church amendment to limit future U.S. military operations in Cambodia.

The Senate will start off with a $17 billion appropriation bill carrying funds for the space program, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Veterans Administration and other government agencies. Next it will turn to the money bill for the Agriculture Department.

Then, after acting on legislation to extend the Defense Production Act, the Senate will start debate on a measure to repeal the Tonkin Gulf resolution of 1964 which former President Lyndon B. Johnson cited as congressional backing for his sending over 500,000 American troops to Vietnam.

Nixon Hails Event:

Honor America Day Attracts Thousands

WASHINGTON (AP) — Honor America Day, a Fourth of July celebration which attracted thousands to the nation's capital, has been hailed by its organizer as a great success and by President Nixon as "the kind of patriotic thing we need."

J. Willard Marriott, the motel-restaurant executive who was the main planner behind the gala show, said he received calls from all over the country after the day-long observance Saturday.

President Calls

One of the calls came from President Nixon in San Clemente, Calif. Marriott said the President congratulated him for a great show.

The ceremonies had all the ingredients of a traditional Fourth of July celebration—the color, spirit and flavor. Only minor incidents were reported.

Elsewhere across the nation, Americans proudly displayed the flag, marched in parades, set off firecrackers, and watched brightly colored fireworks illuminate the night sky.

Graham Sets Tone

In Washington, evangelist Billy Graham set the tone of the Honor America Day events by saying, "Today we call upon all Americans to stop this polarization before it's too late."

As he spoke, wild-haired hippies carried signs spelling out antiwar slogans and a four-letter word. And superpatriots raised their banners with slogans such as "God, Guts and Gunpowder Maintain Liberty."

The noise of Independence Day included a 56-gun salute for the states and territories, and popping aerial bombs that showered little flags on Memorial bridge by the Lincoln Memorial.

Few Confrontations

Police fired a few tear gas grenades to disperse bands of young people around the Washington Monument, but no serious confrontations were reported.

Trouble erupted again Saturday night when hundreds of young persons threw firecrackers and rocks at stores. Some fighting with police also was reported.

Elsewhere, Indiana Gov. Edgar D. Whitcomb and his family led an estimated 1,500 to 2,000 marchers in an Honor America Day parade in Indianapolis.

Turnout Poor

The organizer of Hawaii's Honor America Day parade, Robert Cole, called the turnout of 500 persons disgraceful. "We had 10,000 too few people," Cole said Sunday.

Many Texas cities sponsored flag waving drives. In San Antonio, the home of the Alamo, officials estimated 12,000 flags were sold during the week.

Cambodian Losses Heavy; Town Taken

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia — (AP) — The Cambodian army battled its way today to full control of the town of Saang, 20 miles south of Phnom Penh, after suffering some of the heaviest losses it has reported for one day of fighting.

Other Cambodian troops pushed back a threat to Kompong Thom, 80 miles north of the capital, with the aid of South Vietnamese warplanes.

Cambodian commanders said 32 of their men were killed and 47 wounded during 27 hours of fighting at Saang. They claimed more than 250 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were slain, but said powerful enemy forces still were in the area, apparently preparing for a counterattack.

Saang was heavily damaged during one of the Cambodian war's first major actions. It suffered more extensive destruction this time under the pounding of the enemy's mortars and recoilless rifles and Cambodian and South Vietnamese air strikes.

Newsman arriving in the town found the body of one dead Communist soldier hanging in the central market, strung up by the heels and with both hands blown off. Another body strung up the same way was cut down before the journalists arrived.

Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops battled their way into Saang early Sunday. There was sporadic heavy firing throughout the day as government troops fought to regain key positions, including the central market area where about 50 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were holed up.

Cambodian T28 fighter-bombers pounded the enemy during the day, and after dark South Vietnamese C47 "Spooky" gunships went into action with their 6,000-round-a-minute Gatling guns.

The six-lane Interstate 410 bypass is being routed to run directly through the marshlands of Mafia leader Carlos Marcello. The Associated Press disclosed.

A Justice Department source confirmed in Washington the expressway route is under what was described as intense investigation.

The source said the probe is focusing on whether improper influence was involved in choosing the superhighway route.

The federal government is slated to pay 90 per cent of the $170,000 now budgeted to buy the route through the Marcello marshlands.

The controversial section is part of a 48-mile bypass looping south of New Orleans. The $369 million project will provide two new bridges across the Mississippi River above and below the city.

The 60-year-old Marcello has been identified in congressional hearings as the Mafia boss for New Orleans and the Gulf Coast.

Holiday Traffic Toll 524; 22 State Motorists Killed

By The Associated Press
As the three-day Fourth of July holiday period ended, 524 persons were known killed in traffic accidents across the nation.

John Lawlor, executive vice president of the National Safety Council, said the probable reason for the figure being below the council's estimate of 560 to 600 deaths was that cars are becoming safer and more states are adopting stringent traffic codes.

This year's Independence Day holiday traffic death toll was about 100 less than last year's figure of 611, the highest for any three-day observance of the holiday.

The official holiday period was the 78 hours between 8 p.m. Thursday and midnight Sunday (local times).

22 State Victims

Canadian Air Crash Takes Lives Of 108

23 Americans Aboard Doomed Jet Airliner

TORONTO (AP) — More than 20 Americans were among 108 persons killed Sunday in the crash of a Canadian jetliner landing in Toronto.

The Air Canada Super-DC8 crashed in a field about four miles north of Toronto International Airport after attempting to land for a stopover on a flight from Montreal to Los Angeles. All aboard were killed.

23 Americans Aboard
Of 89 identified victims, 23 were from addresses in the United States. There were 75 paying passengers, most of them from Quebec and California; two infants; 22 vacationing Air Canada employees and a crew of nine.

An airline spokesman said the plane had a capacity of 198 passengers and that on Saturday or Monday "it would have been full."

Second Worst Crash

It was the first major crash at Toronto's international airport and the second worst in Canadian aviation history. The worst was on Nov. 29, 1963, when another Air Canada DC8 crashed 20 miles north of Montreal, killing all 118 persons aboard.

Queen Elizabeth II, arriving later Sunday at Frobisher Bay to start a tour of the Canadian North and Manitoba, expressed to Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau her "most sincere sympathy" for the families of the victims.

Plane Lands, Takes Off

The airliner crashed at 8:10 a.m. after touching down at Toronto and then lifting off again to make another landing attempt. Ground control officials and police said the pilot radioed that one of his engines was on fire, and the control tower ordered him to gain altitude and jettison fuel.

W. M. House of the federal Department of Transport, who is directing the investigation into the crash, confirmed that there had been a fire but said it had not yet been determined whether it occurred before, during, or after the landing attempt.

Weather Near-Perfect
The plane approached the runway in near-perfect flying weather. It rolled a short distance—some witnesses said it bounced off the runway—and then lifted off again.

While it was over the runway, the outside right engine dropped in flames to the ground. The plane was trailing flames and smoke and dropping pieces of debris as it left the airport area. Just before the crash, the inside right engine and a 15-foot length of wing fell 100 yards apart into farm fields.

Misses Farmhouse

The big jet crashed into a field 100 yards from a farmhouse, leaving a scorched hole 35 feet wide and up to 7 feet deep. Sytze Burgsma, who lives in the farmhouse with his wife and 10 children, said the impact shook the house and broke windows. He said he shouted at his family to stay inside, then ran to the field "as that yellow insulation stuff fell like snow."

Burgsma said that when he reached the crash site, "everything was silent except for a hissing sound coming out of the hole."

Italian Ruler Calls It Quits

ROME (AP) — Premier Mariano Rumor resigned today to force a showdown with Italy's powerful labor unions on the eve of a nationwide general strike.

The dramatic move also appeared aimed at ending a growing feud between Socialist parties in his government.

The surprise action came after a 15-minute meeting of Rumor's center-left coalition cabinet.

The 55-year-old bachelor premier went directly from the meeting to submit his resignation to President Giuseppe Saragat at the latter's summer home on the Tyrrhenian Sea.

Saragat asked Rumor and his center-left coalition cabinet to remain in office to handle current affairs while the head of state conducts consultations with political leaders of all parties.

It was Rumor's third government in 18 months and Italy's 31st since the fall of Fascism.

The resignation plunged the country into a deepening crisis marked by economic sluggishness and social tension.

Show Of Strength By N. Vietnamese Expected In Fall

WASHINGTON (AP) — Key U.S. officials expect the North Vietnamese to launch a strong battlefield offensive before September to demonstrate their strength.

The move, authorities said, would be North Vietnam's method of saying its strength was not diminished by the two-month allied campaign that destroyed an estimated 60 per cent of the enemy's supplies stored in Cambodia.

There was no firm intelligence estimate of what form a new initiative might take. But military experts suggested the possibility of widespread rocket and mortar attacks against South Vietnamese cities and military bases accompanied, perhaps, by ground assaults designed to disrupt pacification.

If an enemy offensive should develop in July or August, it would come about the time the latest round of U.S. troop withdrawals was gaining momentum.

Adm. John S. McCain Jr., commander in chief Pacific, is opening a five-day conference today at his Honolulu headquarters to plan the specifics of the withdrawal of 50,000 more U.S. troops from Vietnam by mid-October.

Gen. Creighton Abrams, U.S. commander in Vietnam, is reported to have recommended a package which would pull out some 19,000 Marines, 17,000 Army troops, 10,000 airmen and about 3,000 Navy men.

There were indications at least one regiment of the 1st Marine Division and possibly the entire division may be brought out. This, in effect, would virtually end the Marine combat role in Vietnam and leave the remaining ground fighting to the U.S. Army.

Some sources have said they anticipate U.S. military leaders, who all along have favored a slower withdrawal pace, might once again urge a delay in removing further American forces.

However, top Pentagon civilian officials indicate they are unlikely to go along with any slowdown partly because of deepening budget pressures to cut war costs.

Bombs Damage 36 Texas Buses

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP) — Police and Texas Rangers searched today for bombers who damaged 36 buses of the Longview schools, which in September begin busing Negro pupils to formerly all white classes. No one was injured.

A school official said damage would average at least $1,000 per vehicle. Some of the buses will have to be replaced; damage to others was limited to broken windows.

Police Chief Roy Stone said there was no indication the bombings Saturday night had racial overtones, but he did not wholly discount the possibility.

Stone said he knew of no individual or group that had protested the busing of pupils set for the fall term which begins in September. Beginning with the fall term, he said, pupils of recently closed Negro schools are to be bused to what had been predominantly white schools.

Tracks outside the bus yard indicated two men set the explosives, police said.

Police Lt. Elmer Hanson said the bombers cut a hole in the high chain link fence surrounding the bus yard, then placed what he theorized were 2½- to 5-pound packets of plastic explosive under each bus. He said a slow fuse leading to a point outside the fence was linked to a fast fuse connecting the charges under the buses.

Ceiling Proposed On Advertising By Politicians

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House commerce subcommittee is expected to put the final touches on a bill Tuesday which would put a ceiling on broadcast advertising in general elections by candidates for federal office.

The Senate already has passed a similar bill but the House panel reportedly is considering expanding the measure to include primary elections.

The subcommittee also might write in some provisions to cover state offices, or give states some type of options to come under the program, sources said.

The bill apparently would not affect this fall's elections. The subcommittee is said to be leaning toward an effective date of Jan. 1, 1971, for the legislation.

Miss America Coming:

Flynn To Speak At Dedication Of Harbor Tower

One week from today Escanaba will host Miss America as a highlight to the dedication of the area's 18-story apartment building for senior citizens — a structure now officially named Harbor Tower Apartments by the Housing Commission.

Miss America Pamela Anne Eldred of Birmingham, Mich., is scheduled to arrive in Escanaba late Sunday afternoon, July 12, reports City Manager George Harvey.

On Monday morning she will hold a press conference, will attend a joint meeting of all Escanaba service clubs at Marco's at noon, and will participate in the Harbor Tower dedication ceremonies scheduled for 5 p.m.

The dedication speaker is Fahey Flynn, Chicago television news personality, who is a native of Escanaba. Flynn's TV appearances over the past 16 years have brought him attention and the status of a "Chicago tradition" and many speaking engagements at community functions.

Late last month Flynn emceed the arrival of the stars at the Hilton Hotel — the event a benefit ball for the National Association for Mental Health. The Flynn's (they have two children, James and Kathryn) are settling an apartment in Chicago, moving there from Winnetka.

Flynn is a member of the Executives Club, Chicago Press Club, Lake Shore Club and Chicago Unlimited, of which he is past president.

After the dedication of the Harbor Tower, there will be a reception for Miss America and other guests at the House of Ludington.

In the evening the annual Venetian Night program will be presented at the yacht basin, sponsored by the Escanaba Yacht Club.

'Abe Weatherwise' Of Almanac Fame Dies At Age 69

DUBLIN, N.H. (AP) — Robb Sagendorph — "Abe Weatherwise" of the Old Farmer's Almanac — died on Independence Day at the age of 69 after more than a quarter century as its editor and publisher.

Sagendorph became ill about a year ago and ceased active work. He was editor and publisher too, of Yankee magazine, which he founded in 1935. He died in a hospital at nearby Peterboro.

The almanac is a folksy annual of wit, humor and aphorisms which have been entertaining readers for generations.

Sagendorph once claimed his predictions about the weather had a 78 per cent accuracy, while the Weather Bureau, he said, is only 65 per cent.

He said his predictions were based in part on studies of weather records dating to the 16th century.

EMU Rioting Forces Hike In Insurance

YPSILANTI (AP) — Eastern Michigan University is blaming student violence on campus last spring for a 88 per cent increase in insurance rates on university buildings.

The insurance on the buildings went up to $55,000 a year and the deductible clause was increased from $500 to $100,000, said Lewis E. Profit, Eastern's vice president for business and finance.

Profit said the increased insurance cost and higher deductible factor are "directly related to disruptive events which included arson and rock throwing." Hundreds of windows were smashed in campus buildings during spring disorders and replacement cost thousands of dollars.

"For all practical purposes," Profit said, the high deductible provision "means that we are self-insured. We've never had a claim for $100,000 and I hope we never do."

The deductible feature of the insurance plan, Profit said, works the same as for automobile or residential insurance. The owner—in this case the university—would pay the first $100,000 in the event of more damage to buildings. Profit said that insurance companies are looking at college building insurance plans on a nationwide basis in the aftermath of student unrest. He said Eastern's insurance experience is becoming common.

Although snow fleas have existed for several million years, little is known about them, including their diets. It is believed they feed on either microscopic algae or diatoms.

Census Bureau Gets 75 Names From Escanaba

The names of 75 Escanaba residents who believe they were uncounted in the 1970 census were forwarded today by City Clerk Don Guindon to the regional office of the Bureau of the Census in Detroit.

The names were reported to the clerk's office after city officials expressed surprise that Escanaba's population had declined by 210 in the last decade, according to 1970 preliminary census reports.

The Bureau of the Census will check the names of the individuals against its records, and will add them to the city's total if they are found to have been uncounted.

The 75 residents are in widely scattered sections of the city, mostly on the south side, and there is no "pattern" to indicate any areas were overlooked in the census.

Briefly Told

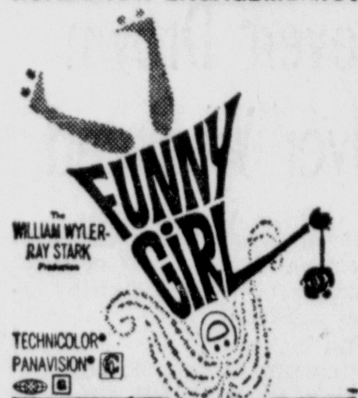

Two young men were arrested by Escanaba Police at 4:13 a.m. July 4 at the Econowash, 703 Ludington St., and charged with simple larceny. They are Kelly T. Wellman, 17, of Bark River, and Milo S. Peacock, 19, of 1325 N. 16th St. Officers said that a soft drink machine was broken into and coins are missing. The two youths were to be arraigned today in District Court.

Reagan Puts Name On Late Budget

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has signed a $6.59 billion budget—four days after expiration of the state's legal authority to spend any money.

A group of Democrats, who had blocked state Senate approval of the budget allowed it to pass 27-9 on the Fourth of July.

Reagan affixed his signature a few hours later.

The Democrats pushed the state into the new fiscal year last Tuesday night without a budget in hopes of getting Reagan to add $181 million in new state aid to schools to the budget.

Reagan refused to compromise, saying the $102 million he already had agreed to was the most that could be granted. The taxpayers wouldn't stand for anything more, he said.

Milliken Lashes Out At Dissidents In Holiday Talk

DEARBORN (AP)—Gov. William Milliken likened America's harshest critics to "frustrated children" during a Fourth of July speech in Dearborn.

Speaking at the rain-shortened "Let Freedom Ring" program at Greenfield Village, Milliken said the critics are "demanding not an extension of liberty, but unrestricted license."

"Like frustrated children," Milliken continued, "they demand the right to smash and destroy things when their will is thwarted. And what they want to smash is not a toy that can be replaced, but a system of government that is irreplaceable."

The governor assailed what he called "an excess of criticism in America," noting that over the long run the majority "is more often right than any given minority."

He concluded, "We are coming to realize that the truest kind of American patriot is one who recognizes this country's faults as well as its virtues... and who acts to correct those faults."

Three From State Killed In Ohio

BRYAN, Ohio (AP) — Four persons, three of them from Michigan, died early Saturday in a head-on collision on Ohio 127, five miles north of West Unity in Williams County.

Killed from Michigan were Laura Collins, 7 months; Connie Wierman, 14; and Louann Wierman, 15, all of Belding, Mich. Also killed was David Michael, 23, of Bryan, the driver of one of the cars.

Seriously injured were Russell Collins, 20, and his wife, Nancy, 17, the parents of Laura.

ces and an improved waterfront. A new 100 foot by 30 foot camp service building is under construction and will be in operation before the season closes. It will house the camp commissary, equipment issue, trading post, camp office and leaders meeting room.

Cooking at the camp is done by the Scouts themselves in patrol dining areas at their own troop camp sites. Food and all necessary equipment is provided by the camp as well as instructional support by the Camp Staff.

Two groups of disadvantaged non-Scouts will attend camp this summer to provide boys with "taste of Scouting". Follow-up efforts after Camp are made to get these boys into Boy Scout troops so they can continue their Scouting experience. Funds are provided through local Community Action Agencies.

Ohio Publisher Puzzled After Home Is Bombed

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The home of Akron Beacon Journal executive editor and publisher Ben Maidenburg was damaged Saturday night by a pipe bomb described by police as a "sophisticated device."

No one was home at the time. No injuries were reported, and neighbors said they thought the explosion they heard about 11:30 was part of a Fourth of July fireworks display.

Police said the metal pipe bomb had been pushed through a window in the garage of the tri-level home.

The number of big game animals living on 187,000,000 acres of national forests and grasslands was an estimated 4,500,000 in 1968. In 1928, the estimate was 900,000.

Ore Tonnage At 3½ Million

The movement of iron ore through Escanaba on the "short haul" to the smelters continues upward in 1970, with the Chicago & North Western Railway heading toward a record 10 million tons by year's end.

For June a year ago the total tonnage funneled through Escanaba was 425,034 and this has increased to 1,161,019 for June this year, reports the American Iron Ore Association.

The year to date shows a total of 3,545,233 tons shipped from Escanaba, compared to less than one million tons for the same period a year ago.

Escanaba's gain appears to be Marquette's loss as the growing tonnage of pellet ore is diverted from that port to Escanaba, with the prospect that by the end of the year the additional 3 million tons that will come here will be lost to Marquette.

Marquette's total to date is slightly less than 1.5 million tons, and June shipments declined from 1,097,201 a year ago to 682,713 this year.

Bridge Traffic Sets New Mark During June

ST. IGNACE — Mackinac Bridge traffic in June was the heaviest for any June since the bridge opened in November, 1957.

Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, said June traffic was up 3.9 per cent from 202,114 to 209,977 vehicles. Revenues were up 3.2 per cent from $743,354 to $767,428. These figures include June's allotment of the $3.5 million legislative appropriation made last year to support a 60 per cent fare reduction. Truck traffic, mostly pickups, was up 11.1 per cent.

For the first six months of 1970, total traffic is up 8.5 per cent from 543,957 to 590,208 vehicles.

James L. Rouman

Conservationists and sportsmen in Michigan lost a great friend last week when James L. Rouman, executive director of Michigan United Conservation Clubs, died in a Lansing hospital after a month-long illness.

He was remembered best in Escanaba, perhaps, for his baseball teams in the 1950's that reeled off a victory string of 43 straight games—a feat that probably still stands as a state record—but his name throughout Michigan was associated with his work in conservation.

A native of Gladstone, James Rouman started hunting and fishing at an early age. He developed a life-long love of the out-of-doors and enjoyed nothing more than fly fishing for trout in one of the streams of Delta County or meandering through the woods in October behind his springer spaniel.

But more than loving the out-of-doors, James Rouman had the ability, the perception and the courage to try to do something for the out-of-doors, leaving teaching and coaching in 1958 for his position of leadership with the MUCC.

When time has dimmed the memory of his life and of his accomplishments as a teacher and coach, many of the conservation and natural resource preservation causes he championed will stand in Michigan as monuments to his efforts.

When Mr. Rouman died, tributes came from many individuals, including Gov. William Milliken and Dr. Ralph MacMullen, director of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Both men expressed the esteem in which James Rouman was held.

"Thanks in large part to Jim Rouman and the organization that he served so well, there is in this state an increasing public awareness of the urgency of decisive action to protect our environment," said Milliken.

Dr. MacMullen said:

"Jim Rouman was to me, first of all, a friend, one of my closest personal friends for the past 15 years," said MacMullen. "He was, besides, a great guy to do business with, a man you could trust and respect."

"Jim was in large measure responsible for MUCC's standing as the nation's best state federation of sportsmen, simply because he was the nation's best executive director of such a federation. They just don't come any better."

"Although Jim preferred to operate behind the scene and out of the limelight while giving the credit for accomplishment to others," MacMullen continued, "He personally deserves a big share of the honors for preservation of the Porcupine Mountains as a wilderness area, keeping the commission system as the keystone for administering Michigan's natural resources, passage of the Clear Water and Quality Recreation bond programs and, above all, marshalling sportsman support for management of fish and game according to sound biological principles."

"Jim... helped guide this state through a period of rapid change and increasing stress on its outdoor resources," MacMullen said. "His untimely death at the age of 58 is indeed a loss to the people of Michigan..."

Where It Went

An accounting of foreign aid spending since the end of World War II, prepared recently by the House Committee on Appropriations, indicates the almost unbelievable extent of Uncle Sam's generosity to friend and foe alike.

The committee found that since 1946 the United States has favored foreign governments with $131,530,600,000 (billion) in foreign aid. Of this amount only $28,059,500,000 was in the form of loans, leaving a balance of $103,471,000,000 that Washington literally has given away.

While vast amounts understandably have gone to America's European and Asian allies, her overt enemies and her third-world detractors also have been treated generously.

Aid to Communist governments of Eastern Europe, the same governments now supporting North Vietnam in its aggression against its neighbors, comes to $3,341,700,000.

Albania, Red China's staunch ally in Communist infighting, received $20,400 million; East Germany ruled by an orthodox Red regime, $800,000; Hungary, $12,400 million; the USSR, $186,400 million; Yugoslavia, $2,560,800,000, and Czechoslovakia, $189,500 million.

Various left-leaning governments throughout the world, whose hostility toward the United States is scarcely concealed, similarly have fared well.

The United States has, for example, supported Nasser's Egypt to the tune of $769 million; favored the anti-Western government in Algeria with $186,000 million; given $460,600 million to Peru, whose government periodically vents its wrath on American tuna boats and other property; and given $144,700 million to Sweden, whose government harbors American deserters and is unable or unwilling to protect the American ambassador from the attacks of hoodlums.

The story wouldn't be complete, however, without a postscript. During the 24 years since the end of World War II, the United States enjoyed a budget surplus only six times and found it necessary to borrow money in order to give it to other countries. The interest on funds thus borrowed comes to $67,858,067,000.

He was arrested on an open charge in Hurley after allegedly accosting his former wife in Ironwood with a loaded handgun, firing several shots and taking her back across the state border. Kasieta was charged with felonious assault with a dangerous weapon and with aiming and firing in the general direction of a person. Alternative To Drugs: Pure Or Applied Religion

By DOUG SJOQUIST

All people have an ever-present urge to escape (self-transcend) from their hostile universe. Each one of us finds a way to withdraw, even if it's only a few moments each day, from our intolerable selfhood and loathsome surroundings. This urge cannot be abolished.

Dreaming is the most common and natural way of escape. In our dreams there is neither work nor monotony. Alcohol is probably the most widespread and most used means. Others are social or technological in nature and some educational or athletic.

Taking drugs is another—a very artificial and unnatural as well as temporal means. Many people find this to be the best way to escape from the world of selves, of time, of moral judgments, and utilitarian considerations.

It is a good way, but very imitative and a sometimes dangerous way. It is temporal in that it only lasts for a few hours. It is artificial and imitative in that drugs, such as mescaline or other hallucinogenic drugs, are closely related to adrenalin, a substance naturally produced in the body.

With the use and development of our subconscious mind we can tap this adrenalin without adding the use of any foreign substance to our bodies such as drugs. The subconscious mind, or "subjective mind" is that vast realm in which occurs the phenomena of dreams, insanity, hysteria, telepathy, and all kinds of psychic phenomena. It is that part of the brain which we call the cerebrum.

The subconscious mind can and should be developed and trained carefully. It is a good servant but a bad master. Through development, the pulse of the heart can be raised or slowed by mere means of suggestion. We might put this to use to tap the adrenalin in our bodies also. Very naturally.

Ideally, everyone should be able to find self-transcendence in some form of pure or applied religion. This extends to include spiritualism and mysticism in my opinion. Eastern religions as well as some of the western world are the most inborn medium of self-transcendence.

There is a problem, however, in the modern churches of today.

Countless persons desire self-transcendence and would be glad to find it in the church. But, alas, "the hungry sheep look up and are not fed." They take part in the rites, they listen to sermons, they repeat prayers; but their thirst still remains unassuaged.

Disappointed they turn to the bottle or other means such as drugs. For a time at least and in a kind of way, it works. Church may still be attended, but God is acknowledged only on the verbal level.

The only effective religious experience that the church of today has is fasting. It is an inducer of visionary experiences and is effective. By reducing the amount of available sugar, fasting lowers the brain's efficiency (biological) and so makes possible "the entry into consciousness of material possessing no survival value." In other words, a visionary experience (in this case, religious).

Moreover, by causing a vitamin deficiency, fasting removes from the blood that known inhibitor of visions, nicotinic acid. Better than just listening to sermons is experiencing them.

Again, I say we cannot abolish this universal and ever-present urge to self-transcend or escape. We can't just abandon drugs or alcohol and other artificial means.

The only reasonable policy, is to open other, better "doors" to the other side by inducing men and women to exchange their old, bad habits for new and less harmful ones, some of which are mentioned here.

Behind Outward Glitter, Much Is Same In Russia

EDITOR'S NOTE—William L. Ryan, foreign affairs specialist for The Associated Press, writes here the impressions he drew from 10,000 miles of travel across the Soviet Union, encompassing six different areas. He previously was in Russia in 1953 and 1960. Ryan is fluent in Russian and thus able to talk to the man in the street and plumb his underlying attitudes.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

AP Special Correspondent MOSCOW (AP)—For one who saw the Soviet Union in the last days of the Stalin era, a fresh visit creates an immediate impression of all-around betterment of the average Russian's life. Yet much of the dreary side of Soviet life has resisted change. That is equally striking.

As was to be expected in view of the Communist party's long-term policy, the "velikii stroiki"—the great projects such as hydroelectric stations, dams, and the huge heavy industrial installations cherished by the party's planners—have been multiplying all along. In addition there are many new airports, hotel buildings, glistening business buildings of steel, aluminum and glass; many new apartment buildings and new roads leading into Soviet cities.

There are more and bigger stores. At first glance there seem to be more and better goods in the stores, and in some respects this is true. It also appears that there are more people with money to spend in the stores.

However, behind all the outward glitter there is much that is the same as ever before. A prolonged walk in any one of the cities now open to foreigners suggests that the consumer is not much better off than was his father. It suggests that the party isn't particularly interested in the consumer or in anything much besides retaining its own position as a ruling elite.

Goods in the stores remain mostly shoddy and outrageously expensive. Soviet production for the consumer side still strikes the Westerner as scandalous for a nation as fantastically rich as the Soviet Union in all manner of resources.

There is no shortage of wealth and skills for whatever helps construct centralized power, for the military, for the space program, for air communications, for heavy industry. Little remains for the consumer, and on that side the tendency still is to polish the visible brass and forget the rest. To the Westerner's eye, the consumer economy remains a severe indictment of the Soviet system.

Must Cut Restraints

So enormously rich is the U.S.S.R. that it might long ago have surpassed the United States in many fields, but chances that it will even catch up in the foreseeable future are extremely dim. Moscow is unlikely to risk the measures that would be necessary to take advantage of the opportunities.

The measures would include releasing the economy from restraints which have been imposed upon it over the years, and permitting a large degree of local discretion, initiative and autonomy.

Moscow is unlikely to do this because such things threaten to erode centralized authority. Without an extraordinarily strong hand at the helm, the consumers in another sort of economy might easily run away with the show. Thus, the prospect is for continued improvising within the present framework. This means the economy must continue to be plagued by dogmatic and outdated theories.

On the plus side, more Russians are well dressed and more seem generally much better off than they were in the last days of Stalin. They are still far away from Western standards but there is not much yardstick available to Soviet citizens for making comparisons. By and large they seem to feel their system does well by them.

The visitor hears little that would reflect directly against the Communist party and its leadership. The government says real wages have gone up, meaning that an average wage of about 120 rubles monthly plus fringe benefits is worth a good deal more in terms of purchasing power than it was years ago.

The Russians say the ruble is worth $1.11, but it sells on the black market often at a tenth of that.

A visitor can hear, if he listens attentively, expressions of impatience, of restiveness, of dissent, but from a relatively small element which objects to political suppression of all but orthodox views.

Can Hear Protest

He can hear protest, too, from Jews who report harsh treatment more and more frequently now because of the intensification of the Middle East conflict and the Soviet involvement on the Arab side.

He can hear it sometimes among young university students.

The dissent, while Moscow reacts angrily and often harshly to it, is a long distance from any real threat to the Soviet system as it operates today. From what one hears said by young men and women coming through party schools and aiming at careers, the Communist bureaucracy would not seem to have too much to worry about.

On the whole, the ordinary Soviet citizen appears to be a patient, plodding and uncomplaining member of what his leaders like to call "the toiling masses." He can see around him a good deal more quantity than his fathers did, even if he sees little change in quality. He doesn't have much means for measuring quality, anyway.

Opening lead—four of hearts.

Good defense frequently requires close collaboration for the best result to be achieved. For a fine example, consider East-West's performance in this deal played in the finals of the 1967 Vanderbilt team of four championship.

At the first table, where Von der Porten and Mathe were North-South against Schenken and Leventritt, four spades doubled was reached in the manner shown. Apparently both sides were shy about undertaking a game, but finally bid it rather than hang a trick short of what they thought they might make.

At first blush it appears that South must make four spades, losing only a spade, a heart and a club. But Schenken and Leventritt cooperated perfectly to defeat the contract.

Schenken won the opening heart lead with the queen, but did not make the mistake of continuing the suit—which would have put an end to the defenders' chances. Instead, he shifted to the ten of clubs.

Leventritt diagnosed the situation perfectly when he permitted the queen in dummy to win. It seemed far more likely that South would have four clubs than five, and accordingly Leventritt ducked the ten of clubs.

When declarer then led a trump from dummy, Schenken climbed up with the ace, returned the nine of clubs to West's ace, and ruffed the club continuation to put the contract down one.

At the second table, oddly enough, East-West found exactly the same line of defense, but they did not fare as well because the North-South pair had stopped on a dime at three spades. As a result, North-South at this table produced a plus of 140 points to bring their team a net gain of 240 points on the deal.

Lost Contact Lense Has Girl Worried

Dear Ann Landers: I feel like a big fool writing to you because I honestly don't know how you can help me. Here goes, anyway.

I'm a girl 16 who finally got mom to buy me contact lenses after two whole years of begging. They are expensive and there were many things we needed worse in the family. Well, I have been wearing my lenses for two months and loving every minute of it. Last week I dropped a lens while trying to put it in. I was sitting on the bed at the time. I called mom and my little brother to help me find it. We searched for 15 minutes and mom finally shook it out of the pillowcase. She was very annoyed and told me if I ever lost a lens for keeps she would not replace it and I'd have to go back to wearing glasses.

Well, last night I went to take my lenses out and one was missing. I have no idea when it fell out or where it is. I'm half crazy from searching and it's nowhere in sight. If I have to go back to glasses, I'll just die.

Do you have any suggestions? — Cyclops

Dear Cy: Look in your eye. Carefully, I mean. The lens might have slipped way over to the corner—way up, or way down. If you can't find it, ask your doctor to check the eye before you give up.

If the lens is not in your eye, you must assume it is lost. Tell your mom and offer to help pay for the replacement out of your allowances, sitting money or by doing without something else.

Dear Ann Landers: I married a girl I had known briefly. I am not sure if she was pregnant when we married. I am certain, however, that the child she expects is mine.

I learned recently that my wife is a heroin addict. How she managed to keep it from me is incredible, but she did, and now I must face facts. My question is this: Will the child be affected? If so how? Do you have any advice for us?—Charlottsville Worries

Dear C. W.: A woman who uses drugs during pregnancy will usually produce a drug-dependent child. If your wife has not told her doctor that she is a heroin addict she should do so at once. The infant will need medication at birth to relieve withdrawal symptoms.

Dear Ann Landers: We have some friends who are fun to be with but they are a little phony. They have a nice home, furnished in rather strange taste. Some of their furniture is very expensive. Interspersed with the fine pieces, they have some terrible junk which they call "authentic antiques." They have done the same thing with their paintings. They have a few good oils and five or six cheap things.

Last week I nearly keeled over when I noticed that someone had removed the artists' signatures and substituted the signatures of Andrew Wyeth, Monet and Chagall. Whoever did the forging spent a lot of time practicing because the signatures look authentic. How these people had the temerity to do such a thing I don't know. Is there a law against it? — Bashed and Unbashed

Dear Bashed: So long as your friends keep the pictures in their home they are breaking no law (except the unwritten law of decency and fair play) but if they should attempt to sell the paintings, they could be arrested for fraud.

Hart Against Isolationist Role For U.S.

ST. JOSEPH (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said Sunday that it would be a tragic move if the United States becomes an isolationist nation "after getting burned in Vietnam."

Hart, who dedicated a new science building at Andrews University in Berrien Springs and also did some campaigning, said he believed in the sale of jets to Israel to help maintain the balance of power in the Middle East.

About the United States' recent campaign in Cambodia, said that if the capture of the Viet Cong Pentagon was the prime goal, the Cambodia operation would seem to be a failure. He said the Viet Cong headquarters apparently was not found and "at least there was no statement from the President that it was."

Hart said in an interview that the United States needs to re-evaluate and readjust its priorities.

"If President Nixon feels that the Hill - Burton Act for hospital construction is inflationary, I wish he'd quit beating the Senate of the United States over the head for a Super Sonic Transport (SST) program which would cost this country in the area of $6 billion over the next several years," he said.

Hart said that the $800,000 million increase in the Hill - Burton proposal opposed by President Nixon was taken out of the defense budget.

Michigan Legislators Eye Campaign Trail

LANSING (AP) — After last-minute fireworks over budget proposals, the Michigan Legislature has adjourned its major sessions until after the August primaries, as many legislators begin campaigning for new terms.

Elections will be held this year for all of the House and Senate seats in the Legislature.

More Budget Work

The Legislature sent Gov. William G. Milliken $1.69 billion worth of spending bills before it adjourned for July on Saturday. But it still must complete action on a $56 million section of the budget for the new fiscal year.

The $56 million proposal for grants and transfers was stalled when the Legislature failed to agree on a grant of $125,000 to $250,000 for the City of Hamtramck.

If and when approved later this summer, the total budget will reach $1.75 billion for the 1970-71 fiscal year. This is $213 million above the previous budget.

Return Aug. 6

The Legislature will take up the last budget measure when it meets to consider major action for a week starting Aug. 6. Capitol observers say the only stalled budget item should be approved by the Legislature.

It has not been decided whether the Legislature will need further time before closing for the year and before concentrating on the November general elections.

At stake in November will be control of both Houses in the Legislature. The Republicans are in majority in the current Senate and the Democrats in the House.

School Grant On Agenda

In August, the Legislature also plans to take up a proposed constitutional amendment to reduce the property tax ceiling for schools. This is part of the governor's education proposals.

The $56 million bill contains a precedent-setting $5 million grant to Detroit for use in increased police and fire protection.

The governor said the real decision "has been made already" on the bill. The governor, however, declined to say whether he might recommend other urban grants, such as the Hamtramck proposal, to assure passage of the measure.

Prefunctionary Sessions

The question of the grant to financially-troubled Hamtramck kept the Legislature from acting on the final budget item.

The lawmakers have agreed to hold perfunctory sessions twice a week throughout the summer. They are expected to be mere token get-togethers with no business expected and only a few legislators likely to attend.

Fiscal experts said the $1.75 billion total budget leaves an estimated $7 million surplus that could be wiped out by later supplemental appropriations of some $20 million.

The new pricetag for state government represents some $13 million more than Milliken's $1.74 billion proposal.

Labeling the budget as "fat free, without any whipped cream," Sen. Charles Zollar, R-Benton Harbor, a chief architect of the package, said "We got a little black ink." But he forecast next year's budget would include "built in" increases of some $200 million to keep pace with the state's swelling economy.

Welfare Load Hike Seen

Zollar also predicted rising welfare caseloads would result from a $344.8 million welfare budget given the State Social Services Department. The appropriation represents $56.7 million more than last year's welfare outlay. The average monthly allowance under the program would increase by $7.50 for both elderly and ADC families.

As usual, education's many facets accounted for the largest increases in state spending:

—Support to local schools was

Two Children Fourth Of July Prank Victims

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Grand Rapids police continued their investigation of an apparent Fourth of July prank which left two Grand Rapids children hospitalized in critical condition.

According to police, the youngsters, Bethany Emmons, 6, and Doug Van Kammen, 4, were injured when an explosive device, described as either "a firecracker or a firebomb," was tossed through a bedroom window and subsequently ignited their mattress. The incident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Emmons.

The Emmons' were out for the evening and left a 12-year-old babysitter in charge, police said.

The Emmons girl suffered smoke inhalation and the Van Kammen youngster was burned on his arms and legs.

A police spokesman said there were no suspects and no leads.

increased by $122 million to $969.3 million and $22 million was earmarked for private and parochial schools under a precedent-setting legislative act that still must be reviewed by the State Supreme Court. Various teacher retirement funds will cost $188 million.

Colleges Get More

—Higher education support for the state's 15 major colleges and universities and 29 community colleges, was increased by $37 million to a total of $330.3 million.

But legislative concern over endlessly mounting costs of campus administration and student unrest led to insertion of numerous restrictions on use of those funds.

Students convicted of participation in campus disorders or vandalism would face loss of state scholarships and administrative funds for failing to discipline them under provisions of the higher education bill or other newly enacted laws.

Faculty will be subject to performance standards and will be required to meet minimum hourly teaching requirements.

Uniform Fees Eyed

Beginning in 1971, tuition fees at both two-year and four-year colleges are to be brought under uniform state guidelines and must be reported to the Legislature in advance of annual budget writing.

In other areas of state spending, the Legislature made these changes:

—Voted $613,000 for a special State Police detachment to be assigned permanently to the Capitol Complex. An outgrowth of concern for the complex's security during daytime demonstrating and after working hours, the 58-member contingent would include two uniformed troopers in the capitol at all times and civilian security guards.

Request Refused

—Told the State Natural Resources Department to make its bi-monthly magazine self-sustaining by the end of the year. The periodical carries a $2 annual subscription price but is widely distributed without charge.

—Refused Milliken's request to restore a $300,000 allocation for water pollution control research.

—Directed the Social Services Department to spend $25,400 on development of a new program for administration of the state medicare program now contracted to Michigan Blue Shield.

20-Day Jail Fast Proves Fatal To Youth

BELLINGHAM, Wash. (AP)—A young Canadian who died after a 20-day fast in the Whatcom County jail "presumably starved to death," according to the county coroner.

Robert Lyle Guest, 22, London, Ont., died Friday in a local hospital.

A federal attorney said "it was not possible" to have suspended Guest's sentence.

Coroner Robert L. Rood said Saturday a preliminary autopsy report indicated there could be no other cause of death but starvation.

"There's no question to be solved. He starved to death," Rood said, ruling out an inquest.

Guest was arrested June 12 for illegal entry and ordered to serve 30 days before deportation.

Undersheriff Lou Bisailon said he learned Tuesday Guest was fasting for universal citizenship.

Bisailon said Guest apparently contended he was not bound by normal immigration procedures and was free to enter any country at will.

He said he reported Guest's condition to Asst. U.S. Atty. Richard Schaaf in Seattle Thursday. Bisailon said Schaaf told him the U.S. Marshal's office opposed hospitalizing Guest because it would require a special guard. Bisailon said Schaaf also told him the U.S. Attorney's office did not want to suspend Guest's sentence for fear he would try to enter the country illegally again.

Schaaf said Sunday his office has no authority to modify a sentence. He said federal rules allow prisoners to be transferred to a federal prison if there is reason to believe there is some need to review their sentence in light of their physical or mental condition.

Schaaf said he told Whatcom County authorities to have Guest examined by a physician. He said they told him later in the day Guest had been taken to a physician's office. The next he heard, Schaaf said, was that Guest had died.

The Bellingham Herald said it has received three letters from county jail prisoners since Guest's death contending jailers knew of Guest's fast for some time. The paper said one letter was signed by 10 prisoners.

Hamtramck Fights For Unique Grant

LANSING (AP)—The nation's fifth largest city must wait at least one more month for a unique $5 million state grant because of legislative wrangling over a much smaller grant to a much smaller city.

Lawmakers who successfully stalled a $56 million spending bill that authorizes the $5 million grant, contend the problems of Hamtramck, a city of some 35,000 in the midst of Detroit, are equally pressing.

Their opponents, in turn, maintain that if Detroit "dies," so does the state of Michigan. They brand those who helped postpone action on the bill as "irresponsible" and predict dire consequences in the upcoming election campaign.

Gov. William G. Milliken proposed the precedent-setting Detroit grant, saying, "The survival and the renaissance of our major urban center is important to all persons, wherever they live. 'If our largest city dies, we and our posterity will surely perish soon thereafter.'"

Long legislative struggles in both Houses preceded separate approval of the grants and transfers bill that includes the Detroit fund as well as monies for veterans' groups, interest payments on recreation and pollution control bonds and funds for the State Housing Development Authority.

But a $250,000 grant to the city of Hamtramck, tacked onto the bill by Sen. Stanley Rozycki, D-Detroit, stalled enactment of the measure and put off the Detroit grant at least until August, when lawmakers reconvene.

The House refused to approve the Hamtramck grant in the Senate version of the bill.

Rozycki refused to back away from his amendment.

Leaders in both Houses and Rozycki finally agreed to cut the Hamtramck grant back to $125,000, but by the time that compromise was reached, it was after midnight Friday, and the House lacked a sufficient number of members to approve the idea.

Senators tried again and again early Saturday to persuade the 31 members present to cut away the $250,000 and approve the remaining items.

Rozycki, who had a small band of followers pledged to support his position, stalwartly refused to give up. "I feel my responsibility to protect the best interests of the people in the city I represent," he said.

Rep. Ted Mrozowski, D-Hamtramck, explained why the city needs money. "Ninety-three (city) employees have been laid off," he said. "Retirees have received no pension checks since February." He urged that "the same kind of logic, rationale, and justification that you are voting on the $5 million grant to the City of Detroit" be used on the Hamtramck grant.

Senate Minority Leader George Fitzgerald, D-Grosse Pointe, called the failure to send the Detroit grant bill to the governor "an act of sheer irresponsibility."

"If Detroit goes, Hamtramck goes," agreed Sen. Coleman Young, D-Detroit. "If you save Hamtramck and leave Detroit alone, Michigan goes."

Young credited Milliken, a Republican, with proposing the grant and accused Democrats following Rozycki of "sabotaging this bipartisan effort to save Detroit."

Some lawmakers blamed leaders in both Houses for the failure, saying they should have controlled their membership enough to see that the votes they needed were present when they were needed.

The final vote on the bill, which failed to pass it, came after 1:15 a.m. on the Fourth of July—more than 15 hours after the Legislature had convened its Friday morning session.

State Budget Director Glenn S. Allen Jr. said the failure to act would hold up the Detroit grant as well as any money needed for the housing authority. Other payments, he said, could be processed at the 1969-70 spending level until a compromise is reached. Allen emphasized that no payrolls were involved in the bill.

Murder Trial Resumes; Jury Not Yet Chosen

ANN ARBOR (AP) — After five weeks at courtroom proceedings, the John Norman Collins murder trial resumed today still without a jury to try the case.

Members of a new panel of prospective jurors were to be examined today — the fifth such panel to be called since the trial began June 2.

Washtenaw County Circuit Judge John Conlin called for the new panel of 300 persons last week after denying a defense motion for a change of trial location.

So far, 13 jurors have been tentatively seated, but they are still subject to peremptory challenges.

The prosecution has nine peremptory challenges remaining and the defense eight. Fourteen jurors are to be chosen, with two of them being removed after the trial.

Collins, 23, is charged with last July's slaying of Karen Sue Beineman, 18, an Eastern Michigan University coed. She was one of seven young women killed in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area in a two-year period. No one has been charged in the other six deaths.

Store Burns

FRANKFORT (AP)—The Delquist Variety store here was destroyed by an early-morning fire Sunday. Adjoining buildings in the downtown sector suffered smoke and water damage, fire officials said. Cause of the blaze remained under investigation.

WINS $1 MILLION — Rebecca Beasley, 27, is wheeled from court in Chicago by her parents after being awarded a record damage settlement, $1 million, by Judge Joseph Wosik. Miss Beasley, of Indianapolis, Ind., was paralyzed from the hips down in a North Central Airlines plane crash at Chicago's O'Hare Airport — 27 persons were killed and 26 injured.

Indiana Thrower Rock Skip Champ

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP) — Brian Cosell of Kokomo, Ind., outdistanced a field of 250 others to win the second annual stone-skipping tournament on this summer resort island at the Mackinac Straits.

Cosell skittered a 13-skip stone to better his nearest competitors by three skips.

Cosell, who explained "It's all in the stone and in the wrist, not in the man," is an electronics expert with General Motors Corp. For his efforts, he won a pound of fudge and the Little David Trophy, which is a 150-pound rock mounted on a wooden frame.

BAY CITY (AP) — Huron County authorities have recovered the body of a Flint man from Saginaw Bay. The victim, Luther Dismuke, 57, drowned June 28 when he fell from a 27-foot cabin cruiser. The body drifted ashore a mile north of Sebewaing.

45 States Adopt Monday Holidays

WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty-five states have followed the federal government's lead in adopting "Always on Monday" holiday bills to give the workman at least five three-day weekends each year.

A Monday holiday bill may still be enacted this year in Louisiana. The legislatures of Oklahoma, South Dakota, West Virginia and Wisconsin get another chance to fall in step when they meet again in January.

Disaster Averted In Sudden Storm

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — A major disaster was averted at nearby Long Lake when a sudden storm capsized two sailboats and seven canoes containing a group of 22 girls and four counselors.

All 26 distressed boaters were rounded up late Friday from various points on the lake by Grand Traverse County Sheriff's deputies, camp personnel and cottagers.

Authorities said proper use of life preservers by each of the girls prevented a possible tragedy.

The girls, ages 12 to 15 years, were from the Flint, Mich., area and were returning to camp after an outing when the storm struck packing winds of more than 40 miles per hour.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

Under a law adopted by Congress in 1968, four existing national holidays and one new one — Columbus Day — will forever fall on Mondays beginning next year.

Effective technically only for federal employees and for the District of Columbia, the new national holidays are: George Washington's Birthday, third Monday of February; Memorial Day, last Monday of May; Columbus Day, second Monday of October; Veterans Day, fourth Monday of October.

Combined with Labor Day, celebrated the first Monday of September, the new dates assure all federal workers five three-day holiday weekends each year.

Unchanged are New Year's Day, Jan. 1; Independence Day, July Fourth; Thanksgiving, fourth Thursday of November, and Christmas, Dec. 25.

Disunity Blamed For Laxity In Crime Fight

BOYNE MOUNTAIN (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said today disunity within the law enforcement community is responsible for "an immense loss of efficiency in the war against crime."

Kelley's comments were included in a speech prepared for delivery to the Michigan Chiefs of Police Association, meeting at Boyne Mountain.

"Each of us is aware of petty bickering between local law enforcement agencies, of ugly disputes between prosecutors and police, of jealousies and rivalries between agencies and even between departments within the same agency," Kelley said.

"Sometimes the cause is honest, professional disagreement," he said. "But all too often, it is based upon personal differences, backbiting, publicity contests, or competition for a larger share of the tax dollar."

"Regardless of the cause, however, the result is an immense loss of efficiency in the war against crime, a tragic waste of time, effort and energy, and an unpardonable drain of public money."

Kelley said the criminal benefits from such disunity, which "gives direct aid and comfort" to the lawbreakers.

"We must recognize that our common enemy is the criminal," Kelley said, "and we must subordinate all individual disagreements which prevent a forceful and unified operation against crime to the main purpose of fighting crime."

Kelley told the police chiefs that when the temptation arises to criticize another agency, "we should first determine whether that criticism will be constructive and whether it will help or hinder the achievement of our main goal."

"We should discourage rival-

Drug Abuse Climbs In Business World

NEW YORK (AP) — A study conducted for the New York Chamber of Commerce concludes that drug abuse in the business world has increased to a "startling extent" within the past two years and has become "an ominously growing problem."

Thomas N. Stainback, executive vice president of the chamber, said Sunday the study "suggests that a problem which was rare indeed two years ago has become almost as serious in qualitative terms as that of alcoholism in business."

The chamber's report, contained in a 64-page booklet, was based on a study by the Research Institute of America, a private research group. It covered 80 companies with major operations in the metropolitan area.

Increase Expected

Principal findings included the following:

—Most companies surveyed expect to uncover three times as many addicts in their work force by the end of 1970 as in 1969.

Court Upholds Board Election

LANSING — Three appeals court judges squelched a two-year fight over a school board election in Hancock by ruling that only the attorney general can take the case to court.

The decision upheld the order of Circuit Judge Stephen D. Condon that he had no jurisdiction in the case.

It was started by Houghton County Prosecutor Walter T. Dartland for Myra De Motts who ran for the Hancock school board and lost by four votes on June 10, 1968.

On June 9, 1968, Dartland filed a little-used quo warranto action before Condon. It challenges the right of the winner to hold office.

The case charged that the ballot was improperly worded, that candidates' names were not rotated and that Mrs. De Motts did not get a proof copy before the ballot was printed.

It was filed against the Hancock Public Schools, two other candidates, the late Raymond F. Hosang and William T. Eilbola, and the city of Hancock.

Appeals Court Judges John W. Fitzgerald, John H. Gillis and Michael D. O'Hara ruled that only the attorney general can start a quo warranto action under present state law.

Due In City Wednesday:

Montgomery To Bring Campaign To Peninsula

By DON HOENSCHELL
Panax Staff Writer

LANSING — Rep. George F. Montgomery today roared off on a statewide campaign for governor that will take him to ten Upper Peninsula communities.

He is starting without endorsements and short of the dollars, but Montgomery made it plain that the virtue of frugality will be one of his major charms to a party entering the election-year harvest season with a deficit.

His campaign headquarters will be set up in Livonia. Rep. Dominic J. Jacobetti (D-Ne-gaunee) will handle the Upper Peninsula.

"We'll be spending the next four weeks on the campaign trail," Montgomery said. "We'll work 18 to 20 hours a day and that will set the rhythm of the campaign."

Escanaba On Wednesday
Montgomery (D - Detroit) started last Friday, hitting Garden City, Southfield, and on Saturday, Clawson, Wyandotte, Utica, Riverview and up north to Manistee.

His first major thrust will be into the Upper Peninsula starting Tuesday at St. Ignace and Mackinac Island. Wednesday will bring on Manistee, Escanaba and Iron Mountain.

He will go next to Ironwood, Iron River, Hancock and Chassell, where his mother, Mrs. J. Wortley Brown Montgomery, was born. Then on Saturday, he will be off to Hancock, back to Marquette on Sunday, leaving the U.P. next Monday morning for Cheboygan, Rogers City and Alpena.

Needs U.P. Votes

"The Upper Peninsula contains 12 of the 18 Democratic counties in the state," Montgomery said. "No statewide candidate ever has won without taking an edge in the U.P."

"The strategy will be that we have to come out of the U.P. with an edge."

Montgomery said that Zoltan Ferency, who was the party's candidate against former Gov. George Romney in 1968, now leads the four-man Democratic field in the 1970 primary race.

He said that is based on a Republican poll Ferency saw and his own private samplings. That puts State Senator Sander M. Levin (D-Berkley) second, Macomb County Prosecutor George N. Parris third and

MT. PLEASANT — Central Michigan University has named 16 Delta County students to its scholastic honors lists for the spring semester.

Other students on the "B" honors list from the area are:

Robert Allan Gibbons, 19, of Rte. 3 Rapid River, was arrested on Saturday at 10:45 p.m. on a minor in possession charge by the State Police. Officers said that while the car in which Gibbons was riding was being stopped, Gibbons jumped out and ran across a field. He ran into a farm disc and cut his right leg. Gibbons was taken to St. Francis Hospital, where he was reported in good condition today.

Montgomery fourth.

Montgomery said he has about $10,000 to conduct a $15,000 campaign at the start. He figures the whole thing will cost under $50,000. The statutory ceiling on primary spending is $128,000.

"I hope the rather frugal campaign we put on in the primary will be an example of the kind of campaign we will run if we get the nomination," he said.

"The party can be assured that we won't bleed it white. We plan to spend maximum hours and minimum dollars."

Big labor already has endorsed Levin, a blow to Democratic Montgomery, who said the AFL-CIO issued its endorsement before talking to him.

Montgomery said the candidate who gets 350,000 to 400,000 votes will be the winner.

"I think I can get them, though right now I'm the underdog, probably fourth," he said.

Romney Defends National Policy In Denmark Talk

AALBORG, Denmark (AP)—U. S. Housing and Urban Development Secretary George Romney departed from prepared remarks over the weekend during a freedom festival in Aalborg, Denmark, to defend the Nixon Administration's Southeast Asian policy.

Romney, answering a critic who blasted U.S. involvement in Vietnam and quoted from Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver, said President Nixon is currently attempting to right the obsolete policies that resulted in U.S. involvement.

Romney said the correction is continuing rapidly as the South Vietnamese can prepare "to defend themselves from the consequences of our mistakes and their mistakes" in what he called "a tragic conflict."

Romney said Saturday Nixon would proceed as "rapidly as peace can be achieved and would concede 'everything but the right of all the people of South Vietnam to determine their own future.'"

Alvarez Winner In Mexican Vote

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Luis Echeverria Alvarez won Mexico's presidency by the expected landslide Sunday, extending the 42-year hold of the PRI—the Institutional Revolutionary party—by another six years.

The PRI said unofficial returns from 4,822 of the nation's 36,901 voting precincts gave Echeverria 1,232,200 votes to 158,324 for Efraim Gonzalez Morfin of the PAN, the National Action party.

Although there never was any doubt Echeverria would win, Gonzalez Morfin refused to concede defeat. His supporters claimed there were many voting irregularities, but a government election chief rejected the claims.

Richer, Duford Snare Feature Race Honors

Feature Winners Modified Jerry Richer Sportsman Larry Duford

All the fireworks for the Fourth of July were not provided by the Escanaba Recreation Department, as over 70 modified and sportsman drivers provided their own special brand of fireworks in racing action Saturday night in Escanaba.

Veteran Schaffer speedster, Jerry Richer, captured the modified 40 lap feature, and young Larry Duford of Kingsford won a thrilling sportsman feature before a holiday crowd of 2,335.

The modified feature saw 18 cars start in the race, with only about half the field running at the end. Spinouts and wrecks caused five restarts in the race. Bob Derouin of Escanaba set the pace until the halfway mark, when Bob Iverson of Hyde took over the lead.

On lap 22, the first three cars dropped out of the race, as Iverson's car caught on fire and Derouin, who was running second, and Joe Wurth of Menominee, third, experienced car trouble. At that point it was a new race, with Richer and Allen Yelle of Sands competing the rest of the way for the checkered flag. At the end of the 40 laps, Richer was a couple of car lengths ahead of Yelle, with Dave Hosking of Bark River moving in for third place money.

Ed Provo of Escanaba was a double winner, picking up victories in the semi-feature and the second heat.

In the semi-feature, Canadian Wes Seabrook found a big hole on the first lap and shot through the pack for the lead. He maintained his front running position until lap 13, when Provo got by him. He maintained his pace for the last two laps and picked up his third checkered flag of the year. Bob Hengesh of Escanaba moved into second with two laps to go, and Seabrook had to settle for third.

In the second heat, Provo, starting in the front row, took the lead on the first lap and maintained a perfect groove to beat Bob Hengesh to the finish line in a close race. The two battled bumper to bumper for all 12 laps, with Yelle right behind for third.

Seabrook packed up his first victory of the year on the Escanaba track in the first heat, winning easily over Jim Peterson of Kingsford.

Bob Iverson captured the fast third heat and took top time, turning the quarter mile oval in a clocking of 18:98, the best time this year.

In the third heat, Iverson worked his way up from the back of the pack to pass Hosking on the sixth lap. He ran

Kaline Suggests Youngsters Learn To Hit To All Fields

By AL KALINE

One of the most important things in hitting is the selection of the right kind of bat. It should be a bat that a youngster can handle and not one that is used just because it bears the name of a great player.

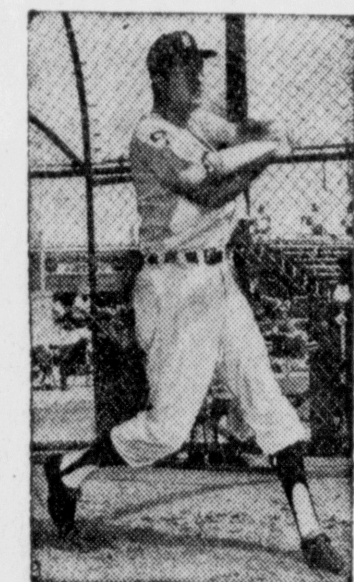

Try to get a bat that you can swing normally. By that I mean a bat that doesn't swing you.

The correct stance at the plate is the one that feels comfortable to the hitter.

Don't try to copy the stance of a great ball player. His reflexes are altogether different because he has had the necessary playing experience. His eyes may be sharper than yours and his hands may be quicker.

One way to improve your batting skill is to learn to hit the ball to all fields. If you were a billiard player you wouldn't always practice the shot toward the left corner of the table. By the same token don't try to hit every pitch to left field.

You must be aggressive at the plate at all times. Never give in to the pitcher. There's one exception. The only time you give in to the pitcher is when he has two strikes on you.

AL KALINE
Be Aggressive at Bat

When that happens you have to go with the pitch, just try to meet it where it's pitched. You must always have confidence in your own ability to hit the ball.

I seldom try for home runs. I think I could have hit many more than I have in my 17 years (he hit 335 through 1969) with the Tigers. There are sit-

'The Foul Five' Frisbee Champs

CALUMET, Mich. (AP) — Five veteran Frisbee flingers calling themselves "The Foul Five" sailed their way to "guts competition" victory Sunday in the final day of the 13th Annual International Frisbee Tournament at Calumet.

Led by Bob May of Berkeley, Cal., the Five fired the saucer-shaped disk too hard and too fast for their opponents, "The Highland Avenue Aces," to handle. In Guts Competition, five-man teams standing fifteen yards apart throw the frisbee as hard as possible in order to force their opponents to drop it.

Earlier in the day, the distance competition was reopened to allow the newly-arrived May to compete. May then sailed the Frisbee 276 feet to top the scores of Saturday's top finishers, who had agreed to the renewed competition.

In addition to May, other members of the Foul Five are: Dr. Stencil Johnson of Sacramento, Cal., George Anderson of Gary, Ind., Hugh Anderson of Lansing, Mich., and Paul Richardson of Marengo, Ill.

Some 20 teams with entrants from 25 states were entered in the "Guts Competition."

John Connelly of Chicago won Saturday's accuracy championship and Doug Hovey of Detroit ostensibly walked off with distance honors before May's efforts in the renewed competition Sunday.

Semi-Finals
Wisconsin National Life 6, Deer Lodge 1
Blue Lake Tires 2, Escanaba Merchants 0

Wisconsin National Life of Negaunee, for the third straight year, won the Escanaba Invitational Softball tournament by rallying to beat Blue Lake Tire of Marquette 11-5 in the tournament finale Sunday evening.

WNL gained the finals by beating Deer Lodge of Gwinn 6-1 in the semi-finals, CCI of Ishpeming 2-1 and Trenary 8-3. Blue Lake gained the finals by beating Gladstone 12-2, P & L Mover's of Ishpeming 5-1 and then topped the Escanaba Merchants in the semi-finals 2-0 on a one-hitter by Doug Wilder.

In the final game Sunday night, Blue Lake Tires took an early 3-0 lead in the first inning when Bill Bath connected for a three-run homer.

Blue Lake continued to lead until the fourth inning when Wisconsin National Life found the range and scored six runs.

15-Under Score Wins Pari-Mutuel At Country Club

The team of Ken Turner, George Shomin, Breezy Wellman and Ed Gauthier carded a two-man best-ball score of 129 with handicap Saturday to win the annual July 4 men's pari-mutuel at the Escanaba Country Club.

The score was 15 under par for the 18-hole event.

Second place went to the team of Dave Andrews, Gary Cyr, H. T. Olsen and Steve Rodman with a net 132, while the team of Bill Eis Jr., Al Lord, Tom Hughson and Jim Tochterman finished third with a net 133.

High winds and cold temperatures sent individual scores soaring for the 76 golfers.

Best round of the day was turned in by Ed Gravelle, who fired a pair of 39s for a 78.

Tom Gregorie carded a 79, while Harold VanEffen, Bill Eis Jr. and Dave Andrews all fired 80s.

George Shomin had the low net score, 72, followed by Jim Fitzharris, Leo LaCrosse, George Douglas and Bill Eis Jr., all with 73.

Bobby Orr of the Boston Bruins won the Hart Memorial and James Norris Memorial awards for his efforts during the 1969-70 National Hockey League campaign.

Wisconsin National Life Wins Softball Tournament

In the big inning Chet Walker, the tournament's most valuable player, had his second hit of the game, a double with the bases loaded to put WNL in the lead for the first and last time.

WNL put the game out of reach in the fifth inning by scoring five more times on five straight singles by Jerry Corkin, Bill Koski, Rick Olds, Mike L'Houillier and Walker.

Byron Hewitt, who was named the most outstanding pitcher in the tournament for WNL, was credited with the victory. Hewitt gave up only four hits to Blue Lake and also hurled a four hitter at both CCI and Deer Lodge to help his team win the tournament for the third straight time.

The Escanaba Merchants had gained the semi-finals by beating Rapid River 10-0 with Tony Derkos tossing a three-hitter and aided by the home run power of Keith Gluesing, who had two, Bob Corriveau and Dekros each had one apiece.

Other tournament games found Peterson's of Gwinn edging the Paper Mill 4-3, Deer Lodge defeating Flat Rock 8-3, CCI upending the Escanaba Independents 18-8 and Rapid River beating Barney's Shell of Negaunee 3-2.

Hermansville Nips Loretto 11-9 With Late Inning Surge

HERMANVILLE—The Hermansville Little Leaguers rallied for four runs in the last inning to edge Loretto 11-9 in league warfare over the weekend.

Steve Maule and Tim Fabry shared the mound duties for Hermansville with Maule picking up the win while Tom Mastie took the defeat for Loretto.

Pacing the Hermansville attack with two hits were Maule, Lausher, and Raiche with Maule and Fabry getting doubles. Jim Bray paced Loretto with three doubles.

Line score:
Hermansville 1 4 0 2 4—11
Loretto 3 4 0 2 0—9

Dave Friets Wins Nahma Golf Crown

NAHMA — Even numbers apparently appeal to Dave Friets of the Highland Golf Club.

Friets, who won the Nahma Open 10 years ago in 1960, won it for the second time Sunday, spoiling a bid by Jack Smith of Highland for a fourth straight title.

Friets carded a one-under-par 71 for the 18-hole event, beating Smith's 73 by two strokes.

Jerry Martin of Highland, playing in the same foursome as Friets and Smith, finished third with a 74.

A field of about 80 golfers competed in the morning and afternoon rounds.

Friets and Smith were locked in a duel for 16 holes, both at one-under-par, but Smith hit his tee shot on the 17th hole out of bounds for a bogey and also bogied the 18th, while Friets played both holes in par for the victory.

Trailing the three leaders from Highland were Tom Gregorie of the Escanaba Country Club with 75, Jim Sundalius of Gladstone with 76 and Bill Eis Jr., of the Country Club with 77.

George Lasky of Gladstone won the handicap division with an eight-under-par 64.

He was followed by Bill Rousseau of Munising with 68. Five golfers — Barney Bratonia, Gladstone; Jack Rousseau, Munising; Marlin Fulcher, Munising; Richard Johnson, Gladstone; and James Krout, Gladstone — tied for third place with net 69's.

Biologists Ask To Close Delta Sharptail Hunt

With the exception of sharp-tailed grouse hunting, all small game hunting and trapping regulations in the Upper Peninsula this year will be the same as last year, if the Natural Resources Commission follows recommendations of the state's game biologists.

The biologists are asking that the bag limits and seasons remain unchanged for ruffed grouse, snowshoe hares, woodcock, squirrels, pheasants, muskrats, mink and raccoons.

But the commission, which meets next Thursday and Friday at downstate Higgins Lake, will be urged to make adjustments in regulations governing sharp-tail hunting to reflect changed conditions.

Close Delta County

Biologists recommended that Iron and Dickinson counties, which were closed to sharp-tail hunting in 1969, be opened this year; that Delta County, which was open last year, be closed this year; that the daily bag limit for Houghton County be raised from one last year to two this year but that the Alger County limit be reduced from two to one.

If the commission follows the recommendations, as it is expected to do, hunters would be allowed two sharp-tails a day in Marquette, Houghton, Iron, Dickinson and Ontonagon counties, one a day in Alger, Chippewa, Luce, Mackinac and Schoolcraft counties. There would be no open season in Baraga, Delta, Gogebic, Keweenaw and Menominee counties and on Drummond, Neebish and Sugar islands in Chippewa County.

The season would extend from Oct. 1 to 15, as it did last year, instead of from Oct. 1 to Nov. 10, the open period in previous years before the sharp drop in sharp-tail numbers.

Numbers Decline

Both the average number of sharp-tails observed by Department of Natural Resources biologists on all dancing grounds in the Upper Peninsula and the total number of birds observed on the same grounds dropped about 10 per cent this year.

Generally, sharp-tails are doing better in the western Upper Peninsula than farther east. In Marquette and Ontonagon counties, where about three-quarters of the Upper Peninsula sharp-tails are to be found (exclusive of the Seney National Wildlife Refuge, which is closed to hunting), numbers are about the same as a year ago.

Frustrating Cubs Explode In Free-For-All; Lose 5-2

By The Associated Press

Never let it be said that the Chicago Cubs are going down without a fight. Perish the thought. Down they are going, but they've still got plenty of fight left.

The Cubs are stuck in a spin that has seen them drop 15 of the last 17 games and tumble from first place to fourth in the National League's East Division. All the frustrations of the slump seemed to explode in the ninth inning of Sunday's 5-2 loss to Pittsburgh.

Ellis Threatens

Pirate pitcher Dock Ellis was at bat and after ducking a close one, he started saying—to no one in particular but loud enough for plate umpire Nick Colosi to hear — that he'd get even.

"Ellis kept saying he was going to get somebody," said Colosi "so I decided to stop it right there and then." Colosi summoned Chicago Manager Leo Durocher and Danny Murtaugh, skipper of the Pirates, to a home plate conference to head off the war. But the truce came too late. Moments after the conference broke up, Durocher exchange angry words with Ellis and the brawl was on.

"It was just like a hockey fight," said Pittsburgh's Richie Hobner, who had tagged a two-run homer in the first inning. "I loved every minute of it."

When peace was restored the Pirates finished beating the Cubs on the scoreboard and dropped Chicago five games behind first place New York. The Cubs led the division by 4½ games when their slide started June 21.

Elsewhere in the National League Sunday, the Mets edged Philadelphia 5-4, St. Louis rapped Montreal 5-3, Cincinnati trimmed Houston 3-1, San Diego edged Atlanta 6-5 and Los Angeles shut out San Francisco 4-0.

Umpire Shorthanded

Umpire Colosi had to break up the fight shorthanded. Senior man Tom Gorman suffered a broken right ankle and possible broken ribs in a first inning basepath collision with Pittsburgh first baseman Al Oliver. Gorman, 51, was removed from the field on a stretcher and taken to Wesley Memorial Hospital.

The Mets got a home run and RBI from Ron Swoboda for the first time since May 31, and it helped beat the Phillies. Tommie Agee's single, extending his hitting streak to 16 games was the only hit in a two-run seventh that gave the Mets their winning margin after Swoboda's homer had broken a 2-2 tie in the sixth.

Danny Frisella saved the victory for Jerry Koonsman, who was knocked out after Deron Johnson hit a towering homer in the eighth.

St. Louis rallied for four runs in the eighth—two on a triple by Rich Allen—and two more in the ninth on a homer by Carl Taylor to wipe out a 3-0 Montreal lead and beat the Expos. Bob Gibson, 12-3, went all the way for his 10th consecutive victory.

Rookie Wayne Simpson, 13-1, also won his 10th straight for Cincinnati on a four-hitter over Houston.

Reds Win

Simpson, who has not lost since April 24, pitched six hitless innings before the Astros solved them. The Reds bunched four hits for all of their runs in the sixth, with Bobby Tolan's single starting the rally and runs scoring on Johnny Bench's double and singles by Lee May and Tommy Helms.

Steve Huntz' ninth inning single drove in San Diego's winning run as the Padres knocked off Atlanta. Pinch-hitter Al Ferrara doubled with two out and then an infield hit by Dave Campbell and Huntz' hit brought the winning run home.

Clarence Gaston poled a three-run homer for San Diego and Rico Carty tagged a two-run shot for the Braves.

Bill Singer hurled a two-hitter and Bill Bragarkewitz and Jim Lefebvre rapped home runs as Los Angeles knocked off San Francisco.

Singer, who was out for two months with hepatitis, pitched his first complete game since April 12, retired the last 17 Giants in order.

Trailer Flipped:

Wind, Rain Pound Area

Friday afternoon's sudden rain and windstorm produced a tipped trailer house, uprooted trees and scattered debris and inflicted minor damage on cars pinned by the falling trees.

Power and telephone service was interrupted for a few hours in certain areas and utility crews were kept busy checking outages. Most of the storm's fury was concentrated on the city's east side.

The 10x50 trailer home of Sgt. and Mrs. James Walters toppled from its site in the McNamara Trailer Court but no one was in the trailer when it was swept on its side.

Fallen trees blocked traffic on Range Street and Michigan Avenue for a short time Friday afternoon. A huge tree was uprooted in the yard of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hawn, 214 Range St., while another big one fell from the Max Larson yard, 525 Michigan Ave., and tied up access to that street.

A few doors from the Larson home, two trees fell across two cars owned and parked in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Se-core, 513 Michigan Ave. Minor damage was reported to both vehicles.

Other big trees were reported uprooted in the yards of Mrs. Delores Ziegler, Garden Avenue and Steuben Street and William Corson, 234 Arbutus Ave.

City crews responded immediately to reports of fallen trees and began clearing the areas.

The downpour came just as the annual Kiddies' Parade began marching through downtown Manistique and sent hundreds of frightened children and adult supervisors to the shelter of the high school gym. A daytime fireworks display, scheduled at the conclusion of the parade, was cancelled. Kiddie parade awards were given Saturday afternoon.

A large crowd of people lined streets and sidewalks under cloudy skies and a temperature of 50 degrees to view Manistique's annual Fourth of July parade.

The parade was led by an all-vets Color Guard and featured the Manistique high school band, the Marching Angles from Sarnia, Ont., the Kilty Band from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. and the Precisionettes drill team. Several businesses had entries, there were clowns and even a costumed Santa Claus marching in the procession.

Wood's Auto Supply won the $50 grand prize for the best overall float entry with a "Think Snow" theme and a display of snowmachines. Receiving $25 prizes were the T.O.P.S. Club, comic; Girl Scouts, religious; lumberjack entry, originality; and precisionettes, patriotic.

Bill Wood was parade chairman for the American Legion Post 83 which sponsored the two-day celebration.

Two Men Face Driving Counts

Two men were arrested for drunk driving on U.S. 2 in Manistique Township on July 4, State Police report.

Charles A. Lohr, 28, Gould City, was jailed following his arrest at 6:30 p.m. and Leland J. Kelly, 51, Gulliver, was lodged in jail after his arrest at 11:30 p.m. Saturday.

Both will be arraigned in District Court. Kelly posted $100 bond Sunday morning and was released from jail pending his court appearance.

Several minor accidents were investigated by troopers over the weekend, none involving serious injury.

Leo H. Davis of Germfask was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law after his car struck an automobile driven by Lawrence D. Vanatta, also of Germfask, at 8:10 Friday night on M-77, Germfask Township. Both motorists complained of minor injuries but elected to seek their own medical treatment, officers said.

Two car-deer mishaps were reported by motorists on July 3. Rodney Lindstrom of Livonia said a deer ran into the side of his car on U.S. 2 in Hudson Township, Mackinac County, while Robert M. Jackson of Saginaw reported striking a deer at 10:05 p.m. on U.S. 2, Newton Township, also in Mackinac County.

Note In Bottle Brings A Letter From Norway

On June 6, Stephanie and George Dellis were walking along the beach of Garden Island when they found a half-buried wine bottle in the sand.

Removing the bottle cork they found a note from a 21-year old Norwegian sailor, Nils Taklo, who gave his address as Bergen, Norway, and asked that the person finding the bottle write him.

The daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Dellis, E. Lakeshore Dr., penned a letter to Taklo and last Wednesday received a reply from his sister, Anne-Helene, who explained she was writing for her brother since he could not write English.

"My brother was very surprised when he got your letter as he had forgotten about the bottle," the reply stated. Anne-Helene, who is 18, said her brother tossed the bottle overboard while sailing on the Norwegian ship "Werry" about two years ago..

Personals

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Neil Nygard, 526 Garden Ave., are Franklin Davenport and children Rosemary and Franklin Jr., Cleveland, O.; Jerry Perkins, Massachusetts; and Walter Davenport, Hartford, Conn., who attended the MHS Class of 1940 reunion over the weekend. Mrs. Alvin Hill and Dwayne and Marty returned to Benton, Ark., last week after spending three weeks with the Nygard's.

U.S. Seeking World Help To Complete Space Station

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The United States is trying to convince other nations to join with it in a cooperative effort to create a true international space laboratory later this decade.

Specifically, American officials want several nations to participate in developing a large space station, which will accommodate dozens of men and women, and a space shuttle, a reusable rocket plane that will service the orbiting station.

Proposal Considered

Several countries are considering the proposal. Acceptance by them would be a financial lift to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, whose future programs have been delayed because of dwindling budgets. Development cost of the shuttle alone over the next seven or eight years is estimated at more than $10 billion.

Dr. Thomas O. Paine, NASA administrator, has led discussions in Japan, Australia, Canada and Europe, all of which have space programs. He recently headed a U.S. delegation which briefed the 10-nation European Space Research Organization (ESRO) in Paris.

Feelers Sent Out

Feelers for cooperation have gone to Russia, but as in the past there has been little enthusiasm expressed by the Soviets.

Paine notes the United States has been involved in more than 250 space agreements with 80 nations. These include launching foreign satellites on U.S. rockets, placing experiments of other nations on American spacecraft, sharing moon rocks with scientists of other lands and use of foreign ground stations for tracking and receipt of data from communications, weather and other types of satellites.

Larger Projects Possible

"By pooling the resources of many of these countries, we can work on larger projects with greater promise of return to all nations," the administrator said in an interview. "It would create a new capability for man to explore and utilize space."

"The United States is going to build the space station and the space shuttle," he said. "But I would like to see this project carried out as an international laboratory in space. If it's truly going to be a cooperative project, other nations should pick up part of the cost as well as provide the kinds of talent which they have available."

Could Share Benefits

He said many countries could share in the practical benefits of a space station, such as communications, weather observation, survey of earth's resources, and engineering, medical and scientific research.

"But this also is a way in which other parts of the world can move to the forefront of science and technological advance, rather than working on their own separate programs, which tend to be some years behind what the Americans and Russians have done," Paine said. "This is an attractive opportunity for them, and I believe they're going to consider it very carefully."

Paine said the ESRO nations listened attentively during the Paris conference, in which the detailed U.S. proposal was presented by Arnold W. Frutkin, NASA assistant administrator for international affairs.

ESRO Could Help

Frutkin told ESRO it could help plan the space vehicles, outfit and supply space station modules, develop subsystems, build experiments, provide astronaut - experimenters, man ground stations and evaluate results.

"If we make the realistic assumption that NASA would bear the main burden for the development of the shuttle," Frutkin said, "it then seems the relationship requires a U.S. prime contractor with European subcontractors. The subcontractors would be funded by their governments. If we are to protect the principle of management integrity, it seems obvious that the U.S. prime contractor must have some effective voice in the release of funds by European agencies to the European subcontractors."

Companies Compete

The giants of the American aerospace industry are competing for the right to build the shuttle and space station and many already have contacted foreign firms which could become subcontractors.

The ESRO nations plan several more meetings in the coming months before making a decision on joining the Americans.

Concerning possible cooperation with Russia, Paine reported that despite many U.S. overtures in the last decade, the Soviets have agreed only on four areas—meteorology, magnetic field mapping, communications and space biology.

"Frankly, the progress under these limited agreements has been disappointing," the NASA administrator said. "Nevertheless, I have over the past several months written a new series of letters inviting new initiatives in space cooperation."

Differences Noted

"The United States and the Soviet Union have political differences all over the world, and I think it's this over-all political situation that makes it difficult to agree in a specific area like space," Paine said. "But in the long run I'm optimistic."

"I don't believe we have to have both U.S. and Russian astronauts on the same flights," he said. "I do believe that we could dovetail our programs better."

Paine said with respect to the space station, "One proposal that we've considered making is designing the same kind of docking adapters for the hatch in both the American and Soviet stations, so that if there were an emergency, it would be possible for a spaceship from one vehicle to go to the rescue of the other."

Michigan Native Gets Federal Job

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — The former director of Michigan's Employment Security Commission has been nominated by President Nixon as assistant secretary of labor for manpower.

Malcolm R. Lovell, Jr., will replace Arnold R. Weber, who was sworn in Thursday as associate director of the new office of Management and Budget in the White House. Lovell has been Weber's deputy the past year.

Lovell, 49, was formerly special assistant to the governor of Michigan and chairman of the Michigan Office of Economic Opportunity in addition to his post with the ESC.

Zollar Predicting Income Tax Hike

LANSING (AP) — The Chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee said that the passage of a $1.75 billion budget for 1970-71 "leaves no question Michigan will have an income tax increase next year."

Sen. Charles O. Zollar, R-Benton Harbor, said the personal income tax rate might rise two per cent from its present 2.6 per cent level. He predicted a similar increase in the corporate and financial institutions income tax rates.

Gov. William Milliken termed the predictions a "snap judgement" and said that he felt "there would be a need for new revenue" but no decision has been reached on where it would come from.

Zollar said that inflation and increasing welfare caseloads were factors that "built-in" an increase of the 1971-72 budget to a figure of at least $1.95 billion in his estimate.

$600.00-A-MONTH TAX-FREE CASH WHENEVER YOU GO TO THE HOSPITAL -Only 25¢ covers your entire family for the first month

- ★ Pays you cash at the rate of $600.00 a month for each hospital stay... even for life, if necessary.
- ★ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare.

No salesman will call—No medical examination required—No age limit

ACT NOW—YOUR APPLICATION FORM MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT, THURS., JULY 23, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow...next week...next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in our National Home plan that...

Pays you $600.00-a-month tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have $600.00 cash coming in every month when you go to the hospital. You get your $600.00-a-month cash—tax-free—as long as you are confined in the hospital. You are covered from the very first day for accidents and from the fourth day for sickness—even for life, if necessary! Most everyone has some insurance or savings to take care of a one to three-day hospital stay. Since we provide lifetime benefits, this "deductible" feature enables us to give you the broadest possible coverage at the lowest possible cost.

Now, this low-cost plan from National Home enables you to enjoy this protection at once. Your introductory rate is just 25¢ for the first month's coverage for your entire family. Then, you may continue at National Home's regular low rates.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this $600.00-a-month plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage or rent payments, to replace savings—or any necessary, but costly, expenses not covered by other hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why National Home developed this low-cost plan that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses.

We can never cancel your policy!

You can count on this wonderful protection no matter how old you become or how many times you collect from us. Your policy guarantees that we can never cancel your protection for any reason whatsoever. It is Guaranteed Renewable for Life!

And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family—this policy (NH10-669EP)...

PAYS $600.00-A-MONTH CASH for each accident or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the fourth day in the hospital.

PAYS $300.00-A-MONTH CASH for the first three months, when you're 65 or over. And a full $600.00-A-MONTH CASH thereafter—even for life. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the fourth day in the hospital.

PAYS $360.00-A-MONTH CASH if a covered child is hospitalized for injury or illness. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the fourth day in the hospital. And the benefits continue for as long as necessary.

PAYS $2,400.00-A-MONTH CASH when both husband and wife (under age 65) are hospitalized at the same time for accidental injury for as long as both remain in the hospital—even for life, if necessary.

PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for a Registered Nurse at home if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more.

PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.

65 OR OVER? YOU COLLECT IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS

We have designed this plan as a valuable addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with any other companies. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. In addition to any benefits you may receive from Medicare, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $300.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $600.00 monthly while hospitalized thereafter... even for life, if necessary!

Pays you $360.00-a-month cash whenever any dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, all your dependent, unmarried children from age one month through 18 years are covered, too! What's more, any newborn children you have in the future are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost to you. And whenever any of your children go to the hospital—for removal of tonsils or appendix, for any illness or injury—this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $360.00-a-month cash, for as long as necessary. Children are covered for accidents from the first day and for sickness from the fourth day.

Pays you tax-free cash Maternity Benefits, too.

With this plan, you can also collect cash at the rate of $600.00 a month for every day you are confined to the hospital for pregnancy, childbirth, or even miscarriage. You get this cash, which is yours to use as you see fit, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan. Of course, both parents must be enrolled in this plan for the entire period of pregnancy.

Pays you up to $4,800.00 cash for a Registered Nurse at Home.

Here's a wonderful "get well" benefit of this National Home plan: You collect cash benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month when your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within five days after you come home, following a stay in the hospital of five days or more for which benefits were payable. You are actually paid for every day you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months!

Double Cash Accident Benefit.

When you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Home plan pays you an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $600.00 but $1,200.00 a month. That's $2,400.00 in all, in cash payments to you every month (when under age 65) starting the day you enter the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

Pays you up to $2,000.00 cash for these accidental losses...

The accidental loss of limbs or eyesight can be terrible. But if such loss occurs any time within 90 days of the accident, you collect $1,000.00 for the complete loss of a hand or a foot or the sight of an eye—and $2,000.00 for loss of two limbs or the sight of both eyes.

Waiver of premium benefit.

Should you—the policyowner—be hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this National Home plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself. Then, if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, we will again pay any premiums while you are in the hospital—for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force.

These are the ONLY exclusions!
Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered.

Nationally known and respected.

DR. E. STANLEY JONES, internationally known evangelist, author, missionary statesman: "In offering low-cost health insurance by mail, you are rendering a valuable service to thousands of people who have no other opportunity to avail themselves of such protection. It's reassuring to know that policyowners insured by the National Liberty group are receiving more than $1,500,000.00 a month in benefits."

LT. GEN. W. K. HARRISON, U.S. Army (Retired): "People benefit in many ways when they purchase insurance direct by mail from National Home Life Assurance Company. They save money through lower rates. No salesman calls. And no medical examination is required. I consider it a sensible, economical way to increase one's health protection in these days of mounting hospital and medical costs."

JEROME HINES, leading bass with the Metropolitan Opera Company: "It seems to me that the concept of health insurance by mail is a very sensible one. It's quick, easy and economical. Nobody makes surprise visits to your home to ask personal questions. There's no medical examination. And costly processing charges are eliminated. This means more protection at less cost. I congratulate National Home Life Assurance Company for meeting a real need."

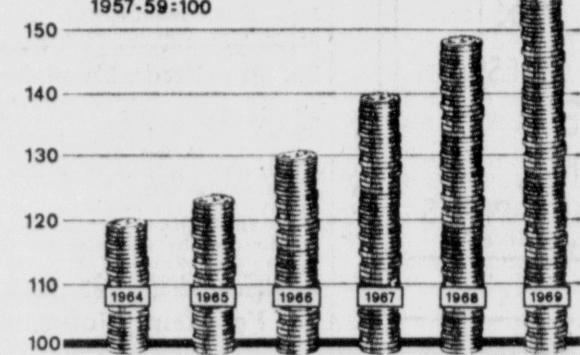

Why you must act before the date shown on your Application Form—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to enroll in this plan? Because this is a guaranteed enrollment offer, we can open the enrollment only during a limited time period—with a firm deadline date for everyone. To provide you with this broad coverage at these rates, we must receive your Application Form during the same period as all the others.

As soon as we receive your Application Form we will rush your policy to you by First Class Mail. When your policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. It is a very short document and you'll be pleasantly surprised to see there is no fine print. Show it, if you wish, to your doctor, lawyer, insurance agent, or some other trusted advisor.

Medical Costs Skyrocketing!

SOURCE: U.S. DEPT. OF LABOR, WASHINGTON, D.C.

MEDICAL CARE COSTS rose in September, 1969, to 157.6% of the 1957-59 average from 156.8% a month earlier. These costs are components of the Government consumer price index.

HERE ARE YOUR LOW RATES.

The following rate chart shows how little it costs after the first month to cover yourself, your spouse and any adult dependents. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue you only one policy of this type. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	only $3.85
45-49	only $4.25
50-54	only $4.85
55-74	only $5.55
75-79	only $6.25
80-84	only $6.95
85 and over	only $8.35

Only $2.05 more per month covers all your dependent children...

from the age of one month through 18 years. Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost! And then if you wish, just add $1.35 monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too!

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT THIS NATIONAL HOME PLAN

1. How much will I be paid when I go to the hospital?

You will receive cash at the rate of $600.00 a month. When you're 65 or over, you collect (in addition to any Medicare benefits) $300.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $600.00 monthly while you remain continuously hospitalized thereafter. And you collect cash for an accident even if you're in the hospital for only one day. Coverage for illness begins the fourth day—and benefits are paid in full for as long as you're hospitalized... even for life, if necessary.

2. Do you pay me cash when my children go to the hospital?

You collect cash at the rate of $360.00 a month whenever any of your children (age 1 month through 18 years) go to the hospital—if Coverage for Children is added to the basic plan. Coverage for accidents begins on the first day—sickness on the fourth day. And if you have a growing family—as soon as any newborn child is one month old, he, too, is covered—automatically... at no additional cost.

3. Will you pay me cash benefits for pregnancy?

Yes, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan. You collect cash at the rate of $600.00 a month for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay. (Both parents have to be enrolled in this plan for entire pregnancy period.)

4. Are there any other cash benefits I can collect?

There are! If you and your insured spouse are both in an accident and hospitalized at the same time, you receive this DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT: You collect at the rate of $1,200.00 a month and your spouse collects at the rate of $1,200.00 a month—you receive a total of $2,400.00-a-month tax-free cash (when under age 65) for as long as you both remain in the hospital. Then, too, if any accident results in the complete loss of limbs or eyesight—even as long as 90 days after the accident—you are paid up to $2,000.00 cash.

5. Suppose I'm hospitalized for a long time and can't meet my premium payments?

If you—the policyowner—are hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this National Home plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. You aren't expected to pay us back, either.

6. What do I do when I have a claim?

Whether you have a claim, or just want to ask us a question, don't hesitate to contact us. As a National Home policyowner, you are entitled to prompt, courteous and direct attention at all times... and you will get it.

7. Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover?

Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers everything except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.

8. Does this plan pay in any hospital?

You will be covered in any hospital of your choice except a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility.

9. What are the requirements to enroll in this National Home plan?

You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and to qualify during this Enrollment Period—you must enroll before midnight of the date shown on the Application Form.

10. Besides saving money—are there any other advantages to joining this plan during this Enrollment Period?

Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a lengthy, detailed application—just the brief Application Form in the corner of this page. Also, during this Enrollment Period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!

11. How do I enroll?

Fill out the brief Application Form and mail it with just 25¢ for the first month's protection for your entire family. Mail to: National Home, Valley Forge, Pa. 19481.
